The Day of the Dead (“Día de los Muertos”)

Thursday, October 31-Saturday, November 2

The Day of the Dead (“Día de los Muertos”) is a tradition among Mexican and Mexican-Americans which honors deceased family members and friends. An “altarcito” or small shrine is arranged in a home and photos of deceased loved ones are placed there together with candles, flowers, and remembrances of their departed relatives. This week an “altarcito” will be prepared in Sacred Heart Chapel entrance. Please feel free to bring photos of deceased relatives and friends and place them on the “altarcito.” As we begin the month of November with our liturgical celebrations of the Solemnity of All Saints and the Commemoration of the Faithful Departed, we will be reminded of our communion with those who have gone before us in faith and of our hope of resurrection.

This photo of Fr. Raúl Gómez and Dr. Emilce Cuda (who reviewed the Pope Francis book) was taken in the conference hall at the Pontifical Catholic University Rio de Janeiro at the Ecclesia in America 20 years Symposium.
