Congratulations!

Congratulations to Br. Meghanand (Megha) Bandanadham, SCJ who successfully completed the oral portion of the comprehensive exam for the Master of Arts degree on Thursday, October 31!

Congratulations, Fr. Vien & Dcn. Steve!

It is with great honor to announce the recent publication of two articles produced by Fr. Vien Nguyen, SCJ and Dcn. Steve Kramer.

Fr. Vien's article has appeared in two peer-reviewed journals (distributed by the same publisher) – one in print (Journal of Biblical Theology) and one online (American Journal of Biblical Theology).

The references are:

"A Parallel Case of Two Conversion Stories: A Narrative Criticism of Acts 8:5-40," The Journal of Biblical Theology 2:4 (2019), pp. 23-41.

"A Parallel Case of Two Conversion Stories: A Narrative Criticism of Acts 8:5-40," The American Journal of Biblical Theology 20:35 (2019).

In this article, Fr. Vien argues that a narrative analysis of the two conversion stories in Acts 8:5-40 reveals that "the Ethiopian eunuch is portrayed as being liberated from his spiritual marginal status, whereas Simon the Great still struggles to liberate himself from his magical worldview and practices." To read Fr. Vien's convincing argument, the article can be accessed online at: <https://www.biblicaltheology.com/Research/NguyenVV01.pdf>

Appearing in Deacon Digest, Dcn. Kramer offers insights on effective preaching during the season of Advent. A particularly touching section of his article quotes the words of our much beloved colleague and departed friend, Fr. Paul Kelly, SCJ.

The reference for the article is:

Dcn. Steve Kramer, "The Word of God in Advent: A Diaconal Perspective to the Season's Unique Homiletic Opportunities," Deacon Digest (2019). It can be accessed online at <https://www.deacondigest.com/2019/10/15/the-word-of-god-in-advent/>

Deacon Digest is distributed to 18,500 permanent deacons and approximately 2500 candidates around the country, so Dcn. Kramer's contribution will undoubtedly have an impact upon preaching this upcoming Advent season.

Well done, Fr. Vien and Dcn. Steve!
