“Reflections on the Holocaust: Franklin Roosevelt, Immigration, and the Jews”

On Sunday, November 17, lecturer Dr. Tim Crain, the former director of the National Catholic Center for Holocaust Education and current assistant professor of history at Seton Hill University in Pennsylvania, visited Sacred Heart to speak on the type of relationship President Franklin D. Roosevelt’s had with the Jews and his response to their situation during the Holocaust. He expanded on the contentious debate that still lingers (nearly seventy-five years after World War II) over whether FDR turned his back on the Jews of Hitler’s Europe or saved millions of potential victims by defeating Nazi Germany.

Last week to participate in the Clothing Drive

A clothing drive is currently being held at Sacred Heart in the lobby (you will see a marked box). It will end on December 2.

We are looking for new or gently used clothing, particularly plus size men’s and women’s coats and jeans. Checks can be made out to Repairers of the Breach. All check and cash donations can be dropped off to Jenny Drzewiecki (office 220).

Thank you for your support!

Civilize It!

From the USCCB: “With another election cycle in full swing, we are faced with the difficult question of what it means to love our neighbors in the midst of such a divisive climate. We are called to bring the best of ourselves and our faith to the public square—and yet today, many shy away from such involvement because our national and local conversations are filled with anger and harsh language, often directed at people themselves.

When personal attacks replace honest debate, no one wins. This kind of attack, no matter the reason, only serves to further divide our communities. As Catholics, we must model a better way. In response to this need, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) has launched a year-long campaign calling for civility throughout this election year. Civilize It: Dignity Beyond the Debate invites Catholics to pledge civility, clarity, and compassion in the public square and to call on others to do the same.

The USCCB is challenging Catholics to model love for neighbor through respect, and compassion during the 2020 election cycle and beyond. Put your faith into action and make room in your heart for those with whom you disagree. You can learn more at CivilizeIt.org!”
