be merciful to me and hear my prayer." (Psalm 4:1)

Virtual Learning

See how students are continuing to learn and take their classes via video calls during the COVID-19 quarantine! Thank you to all the faculty and staff who are making this possible!

Retreat

Four seminarians who are at Sacred Heart during this time of quarantine will be making a retreat guided by Fr. George Mangiaracina, OCD.

Please join us in praying for Joel Siepp (Diocese of Belleville), Alex Sutachan (Diocese of Springfield-Cape Girardeau), José Carlos Miguel López (Glenmary Home Missioners), and Wilbert Colas (Diocese of El Paso).

Virtual Doctor Visits

Did you know that certain healthcare insurance companies offer virtual doctor visits? This is a great way to stay safe at home while communicating with your doctor. Contact your healthcare insurance provider or human resources manager today to learn more about this option.

Finance and Business Services Hours

The Finance and Business Services Department altered its schedule to have one person from their team at the seminary Mondays through Thursdays.

The hours will be from 9am-3pm. Maintenance and custodial schedules are not changed. The technology team continues to work remotely but comes into the building as needed. Food Services is operating as usual.

Congratulations!

It is Sacred Heart's pleasure to announce the publication of a book review by Fr. Vien Nguyen, SCJ, that appeared in the Review of Biblical Literature.

This book review's bibliographical information is: Nguyen, Vien V. 2020. Review of The Lord's Supper in Corinth in the Context of Greco-Roman Private Associations, by Jin Hwan Lee. Review of Biblical Literature 03/2020.

In his review, Fr. Vien explains how this work is a great contribution to the ongoing discussion about the nature of the conflicts at the Corinthian Lord's Supper. He writes, "This book contains a wealth of illuminating and stimulating material. It adds a new voice and has the potential to spark further exploration and considerable discussion on the conflicts at the Lord's Supper in Corinth. Undoubtedly, Lee's meticulous monograph is an impressive contribution to the academic conversation on the Lord's Supper, early Christian groups, and ancient private association meal practices."

Congratulations, Fr. Vien, on this excellent contribution to biblical scholarship!
