Lecture in Christian Ethics

Human Being Fully Alive: Being and Act[ing] in Moral and Spiritual Theology

Presented by Very Rev. Justin J. Kizewski
 Livestream on Monday, April 12 at 7:30 p.m.

This talk will explore the metaphysical grounding of certain principles in moral and spiritual theology. Through a consideration of the contributions of St. Thomas Aquinas in the areas of metaphysics and morals, we will seek to draw conclusions from the fullness of being found in God about the goodness of human acts and growth in the spiritual life. The lecture will be livestreamed here. The video will remain online for later viewing as well.

ECS student alumnus completes military chaplain training

Fr. José Joaquim Mendes Da Costa, SCJ, (pictured on the right) a summer 2019 ECS student, has had a busy couple of years. Since returning to Portugal, he has been ordained a priest and most recently completed a training course to become a military chaplain. He will now work as a chaplain in the Portuguese air force at Sintra, near Lisbon.

Thank you, JJ, for your double service - both to the Church and to your country. We will hold you in prayers for your safety!
